

Member Benefits

Did you know?

In addition to helping your child, your involvement as a PTSA member can have direct benefits for you—discounts, information, resources, and more. Your benefits as a member of Redmond EI PTSA include:

Publications

- Exclusive members content at America's number one resource for parents—PTA.org
- Online access to selected articles from Our Children magazine—the official magazine of National PTA, full of great parenting tips, ideas for helping your child succeed, and things you need to know about education today
- The PTA Parent—an e-newsletter written especially for parents and PTA members, filled with great resources and helpful information, and delivered to your e-mail box every two weeks
- This Week in Washington—an e-newsletter delivered via e-mail that keeps you up-to-date on legislative issues important to your child and his or her school
- Special subscription rate to the print version of Our Children magazine

Conventions, Seminars, and Connections

- Free e-learning courses in leadership, PTSA basics, conflict resolution, planning and goal setting, all of which can benefit your volunteer experience and private life
- National PTA and state PTA conventions, at special member rates, that will help you grow as well as network with other PTA/PTSA members
- Special leadership workshops to help you hone your PTSA skills
- The Member-to-Member Network, connecting you to Congress when help is needed on issues important to children, schools and families

Voting rights

- Voting rights at your local PTSA, State PTA, and National PTA (with some restrictions), enabling you to have a real say in your child's future through PTSA

Special offers from Corporate Sponsors and Benefit Providers

Exclusive National PTA member benefits and offers from companies such as
